Should the sale of these items not cover the unpaid balance of your account, you will be liable for this.

The extent to which your obligations are secured to the property noted above is the unpaid balance of your account.

Default interest charges and default fees

In the event of a default in payment, and while the default continues, you must pay the default interest charges. In the event of a breach of the contract or on the enforcement of the contract, the default fees specified below are payable. Your credit contract may allow the creditor to vary these fees and charges. Default interest is charged from the time you fail to make a due payment until the arrears are paid.

Default interest charges are calculated by multiplying the amount in arrears at the end of the day by a daily default interest rate. The daily default interest rate is calculated by dividing the annual default interest rate by 365. Interest is charged to your account every end of month.

FULL PREPAYMENT

If you pay the unpaid balance in full before the final payment is due (full prepayment), you may be required to pay a fee or charge to compensate the creditor for any loss resulting from the full prepayment. The creditor may have suffered a loss if the creditor's current interest rate is lower than the interest rate applying to your original consumer credit contract. You may also have to pay the creditor's administrative costs relating to the full prepayment. The amount you may have to pay to compensate the creditor for the loss is calculated using the formula prescribed in regulation 9 or regulation 11 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004.

Early settlement of a URGENT, EXTENDED or LONG agreement will attract a $10 early settlement administration fee.

PARTIAL PREPAYMENT

Additional payments may be made at any time over and above the scheduled amount listed under the payments section above. As a responsible lender we encourage you to do this if possible as it will ultimately reduce the amount of interest and fees charged and reduce the time taken to pay the account off. DCO Finance is not obligated to provide a refund of any partial prepayments received while a balance is outstanding.

Should DCO agree to refund partial prepayments, a processing fee of $50 will be charged to the account.

QUICK SUMMARY - Declaration of Understanding

Following is a summary of some of the things discussed within the consumer credit contract. It is by no means an exhaustive list so independent advice is recommended if you do not understand anything contained within this disclosure document.

- I understand all the initial declarations relating to the obligations, terms and conditions being agreed to by signing this credit contract. I am also aware that DCO FINANCE encourages me to take some time, seeking independent advice if necessary, to decide if this credit contract is right for me before signing.
- I know that this is a secured credit contract, A security interest in my motor vehicle and/or household chattels being used as security may be registered and that these items may be repossessed and sold if I do not make the payments.
- I know the contact details of DCO FINANCE who is lending me the money and that that by signing this credit contract I become liable for the repayment of it, even if I am a guarantor.
- I understand that the actual interest is accrued daily based on exactly what transactions have occurred and added to the credit contract at the end of each month along with the monthly administration fee. I also know that by making more than the contractual payments the overall payback and time taken to pay the loan will be reduced.
- I know that a statement will be issued every 6 months, upon completion or free of charge upon request.
- I understand what could happen if I fail to meet the contractual payments, in particular:
  - A default administration fee of $10 and default interest will be charged every month until my loan is brought up to date and other fees and charges may also be incurred,
  - Items used as security could be repossessed and sold,
  - My overall credit rating will be negatively impacted.
- I understand that if any automatic, direct credit or direct debit payment made to this account is reversed by the bank, a payment reversal fee may be charged to this account.
- I am aware of the $10 early settlement administration fee. I also understand that if DCO FINANCE agrees to refund any partial prepayment made, a charge will apply.
- I am aware of my right to cancel and that I can seek a variation in the event of unforeseen hardship.
- I also know who I can contact if I have a disagreement that I am not able to resolve with DCO FINANCE and I know about the overall company terms and conditions relating to this credit contract.
